Dear WSU Graduates,

Today marks both an accomplishment and a beginning.

To the Class of 2026: congratulations. You have completed your degree at a time when higher education, the workforce, and our communities are changing rapidly—and you did so while managing real responsibilities in your lives. Many of you balanced coursework with careers, families, military service, and community commitments. That persistence matters. It says something important about who you are and what you can do next.

You are graduating at a moment of profound transformation. The nature of work is changing. Technology is reshaping industries. Communities are redefining how learning happens across a lifetime. And through all that change, you made the decision to keep going—to finish what you started.

Many of you earned this degree while working full time, raising families, caring for others, serving in your communities, or rebuilding careers. You studied late at night, early in the morning, and in the margins of already full lives. Progress may not always have come easily or quickly—but you stayed with it.

Your degree signals more than mastery of a field. It shows that you are adaptable—the single most important capability in a world defined by continuous change. The careers you hold today may evolve. Entire industries will transform. New opportunities will emerge that do not yet exist.

What will endure is your ability to learn, to lead, and to contribute.

The future will belong to people willing to step forward, solve hard problems, and help their communities navigate uncertainty with clarity and purpose. That is now your role—not only as graduates, but as Cougs.

As you move into this next chapter, know that you carry with you a Cougar community that is proud of you and invested in your success. Cougar Nation stretches across professions, cities, and generations—and today you join it as graduates and peers.

The future is being built by people willing to take initiative. You are ready for that work.

Congratulations, Class of 2026. We are proud of you.

Ely R. Cantwell

Dr. Betsy Cantwell,

Dr. Gerry Ebalaroza-Tunnell

Alumni Guest Speaker

Dear Washington State University Global Campus Graduates,

Today, you cross a threshold that is far bigger than a diploma. Completing your degree through Washington State University Global Campus required discipline, sacrifice, and a quiet kind of courage, often exercised in solitude, often balanced alongside work, family, and responsibility. This milestone is not simply an academic achievement; it is evidence of resilience. Somewhere in your lineage are people who endured hardship so that the possibility could widen for you. Somewhere behind you are sacrifices you may never fully see. Today, you honor them.

You make your ancestors proud.

As you step into what comes next, remember the Guiding Principles of A.L.O.H.A.—Ask, Listen, Observe, Heart, Adapt. Ask bold questions when the path feels uncertain. Curiosity will open doors that credentials alone cannot. Listen deeply—not just to respond, but to understand—because leadership in a complex world requires humility. Observe the systems around you; pay attention to patterns, power, and people. Let Heart guide you when decisions become difficult. Integrity and compassion are not soft skills; they are sustaining forces. And Adapt. The road ahead will not be smooth. There will be setbacks, detours, and moments when your preparation feels insufficient. Adaptability will turn obstacles into teachers rather than barriers.

Your degree is not only a personal achievement but also a responsibility. You now carry knowledge, and knowledge must be paired with character. The world does not simply need more experts; it needs wise humans. When you Ask with courage, Listen with presence, Observe with discernment, lead with Heart, and Adapt with resilience, you become more than a graduate; you become a force for coherence in a fractured world.

Go forward knowing you are prepared, not because the road will be easy, but because you have already proven you can navigate complexity with strength and grace.

Congratulations. The journey continues, and you are ready.

Katey Koehn
Alumni Guest Speaker

Dear Fellow Cougs,

Welcome to the alumni family — you've earned this!

As a Global Campus graduate myself, I know what it takes to get here. You showed up, did the work, and crossed the finish line — and that says everything about who you are and what you're capable of. None of us reached this achievement on our own, so let me also express deep gratitude to your support system — parents, partners, kids, friends, and all who contributed to your success.

The WSU Alumni Association is 300,000 members strong, spread across all 50 states and more than 140 countries. That network is now yours. These are people who will open doors, offer advice, celebrate your wins, and show up when you need them — because that's what Cougs do.

As you step into this next chapter, know that your degree is just the beginning. The skills you've built, the resilience you've developed, and the Coug identity you carry will open doors you haven't even imagined yet. Careers evolve, paths shift, and the best opportunities often come from unexpected directions — embrace that.

You are not just graduates today. You are Cougs for life. And we are so glad to have you.

Congratulations, and Go Cougs!

ASWSUG President

To the Graduating Class of 2026,

I, along with your student government, celebrate you and the remarkable achievements you have made today! As a graduating member from WSU's Global Campus, you have not only persevered in a personal milestone but shall now always be remembered as part of a greater legacy. A heritage that encompasses unique, diverse individuals, such as yourself, whose impact on the world shall be immeasurable. This moment marks a lifetime, forever and always, of Cougar excellence.

As a fellow student and peer, I understand that donning the WSU yoke today was preceded by significant effort, potential hardship, and true tenacity. Navigating an education virtually can pose untraditional challenges in pursuing higher education. Perhaps you have found yourself reading an impossibly long psychology dissertation while cooking for your children. Other times, perhaps you were attempting a timed exam on linear equations at midnight following a long shift at work. These instances may have felt impossible to overcome. Yet, here you are in that yoke today.

I encourage you to lean into the significance of this. You are not only graduating from a top university, but you did so while learning incredible developmental skills of balance. These late nights and competing responsibilities have prepared you to make meaningful change in the world. By embracing varying perspectives and contributing your own to the WSU community, there is no telling what great things you will do.

As you look to the future, I encourage you to chase your wildest dreams. In doing so, your student government has no doubts that you will embody the WSU values of excellence and innovation in your work. I urge you to be relentless in your pursuit of continuous learning, improvement, and joy as you proceed.

Congratulations, Cougs! We wish you and your loved ones all the happiness as you celebrate this incredible journey you have taken. May you be nothing but proud today.

Go Cougs!

Sincerely,

Dear Global Campus Graduates,

It gives me great satisfaction to congratulate you all on your incredible accomplishment. I'm very excited for this opportunity to meet you all and share in the celebration of your achievement.

I urge you to fully embrace the significance of what you are being recognized for today. Graduation represents the culmination of years of hard work and perseverance, and you should be very proud of your success. Alongside the immense value your degree will bring to your life and career, you are also now a part of a welcoming and supportive network of thousands of Coug alumni that spans the globe. I'm proud to be among the first to welcome you into the fold.

I want to remind you that you will also forever be a part of the enduring legacy of WSU Global Campus. Global Campus Cougs come from varied backgrounds and walks of life—many with children, working full- or part-time jobs, actively engaged in their communities, and even serving in the military. Your diverse, lived experiences and perspectives contribute immeasurably to the welcoming culture and academic depth of our worldwide community of learning. I thank you for your unique contributions and for being an active part of this very special family.

For more than three decades, students have worked diligently to achieve academic success, all while engaging with, contributing to, and building a vibrant student community. Throughout that time, our campus has remained a nationwide leader in online education, and we will continue to grow and innovate as we look to the future. You all are a principal part of that success.

Again, I want to congratulate you on your great achievement and wish you, and your friends and families, a joyous day of celebration. You deserve it.

Sincerely,
